Hans Hundseidel writes: Someone once asked me to comment on the article about this cool Windows OS with no UI. Before I left my last job, I wrote the company a short explanation what "Windows without UI" means, and about how such a UI is possible. Even though I have only 3 qualifications in the computer-world, I think it is the right short explanation for most of the readers. This text is just for people that are interested in knowing a little bit more about the research-work done to create this Windows OS without UI. Especially for those who are interested in the OS concept. Hans Hundseidel writes: This document describes the OS prototype work at present, i.e. until the end of the project. This document also describes all the things that were decided during the project and that have been tested and debugged (far beyond the prototype level). X is the name of the prototype OS. HK Tunes is a program that lets you use your mouse to control iTunes. This is a very simple and easy to use program, that will let you press a button on your mouse with some delay, and with some timing, to activate the corresponding action on iTunes. The delay and timing are configurable, and can be set on the fly. It can also be used to make more than one action possible. If you press the "R" button, you can play, pause, next, previous, eject, etc. You can configure a hotkey and set the delay and timing. How to Get it: Click the link below to download the installer. Download: If you want to use the hotkey for multiple things, click here to download the hotkey and options file.Q: Right padding to right for I have a scenario where I am trying to right align three s in a row within a row that are preceded by a . As they are col-md-3, all three of them should be aligned to the right. I am trying to use the following .col-md-3 { float:right; } How can I get it so the three divs are on the right? I also want to add a different padding right to the last div so that text doesn't go past the edge of the div. A: This will give you what you are trying to accomplish: #container div:first-of-type { float:right; width: 33%; padding-right: 30px; } #container div:last-of-type { float:right; width: 33%; padding-right: 30px; } #container div:nth-of-type(3n) { float:right; width: 33%; padding-right: 30px; } #container { display: inline-block; margin-right: 50px; }
